meister was mess NCO; another Oberwachtmeister ran the

CONFIDENTIAL

CLASSIFICATION

X NSRB

GPA

STATE

ARMY

X NAVY

X AIR

ordnance room; a Hauptwachtmeister was supply NCO; an Oberwachtmeister was in charge of confiscated items; one Hommissar, a Polizeimeister, a Hauptwachtmeister and two Oberwachtmeister performed criminal police functions; an Oberwachtmeister was in charge of medical service, and four or five other Oberwachtmeister and 10 Wachtmeister performed

No Change in Class.

Declass Red

Auth.: _ HR /10-2/

Clars. Changed To: TS

210/06/08

25X1

25X1

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

-2-

Approved P

25X1

various unknown auxiliary functions at Hommandantur I.

- One Kommando of Kommandantur I was located in Falkensee. The location of the other four Kommandos could not be specified. Each Kommandantur controls five Fommandos.
- The personnel of a kommando includes a Kommissor as chief, a Hauptwachtmeister or Folizeimeister as PK-Leiter, an Oberwachtmeister as supply NCO, an Oberwachtmeister as NCO in charge of confiscated items, three Oberwachtmeister as squad leaders, 30 Wachtmeister in the squads and one Polizeimeister and one Hauptwachtmeister in criminal police service.
- Kommandantur II of the Grenzbereitschaft was located in Hennigsdorf. Polizeirat Zohlen, (fnu), was chief and Polizeirat Koerner, (fnu), PK-Leiter of the Kommandantur. The 1st Kommando was located at the Velten checkpoint, the 2nd at the Velten crossing point, the 3rd in Niederneuendorf, the 4th at the Oranienburg checkpoint and the 5th at the Oranienburg crossing point nienburg crossing point,
- 7. Kommandantur III of the Grenzbereitschaft was located in Gross Glienicke. It had Kommandos in Gross Glienicke, Seeburg, Dallgow, and in two other unknown locations.
- The Grenzbereitschaft had a total strength of about 700 police. The headquarters was equipped with four trucks, two passenger cars and ten motorcycles. Lach Kommandantur had two passenger cars and two or three motorcycles. Fodel 98-K carbines and models 08 and 33 pistols were the only arms observed.
- about 55 percent of the personnel were in the SDD group of the unit, and about 95 percent in the FDJ group of the unit.
- Border police at checkpoints are assigned to check documents and baggage.
- Kommandos, newly established at crossing roints, by order of the Grenzbereitschaft on 20 May 1950, search all freight trains and baggage coaches of passenger trains for export articles banned under the provisions of the German Intrastate Trade Law. *

Comment. Available information on the new organization of the Volkspolizei of the hing un Berlin is not sufficient to obtain a clear picture. It appears that the former Grenzbereitschaft Ringum Berlin was roorganized into three Grenzbereitschaften, each with 700 to 300 men, in the spring of 1950. There are vague indications that these three units way be located in Palkensee, Bernau and Teltow.

